If you stay at one of the hotels along the San Antonio River Walk, you will have easy access to dozens of restaurants and bars. However, there is more to San Antonio than river walk. Hotels on the outskirts of the city can offer more resort style. To get the full story of the River Walk, take a Rio San Antonio River Barge Cruise on a 45-minute narrated tour. It's well worth the price. For the romantically minded, there are also lunch cruises for two. It's a sight you don't see just anywhere: a couple eating at a finely appointed candle table on a small boat floating down the river. The service is great because the waiter is never more than a few feet away. 01 of the 12 Courtesy St. Anthony Hotels listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the St. Anthony Hotel was fully restored to its former glory in 2015. Opened in 1909 as San Antonio's first luxury hotel, The St. Anthony was also the first fully air-conditioned hotel in the world. Although his style has evolved over the years, you will still find a marble staircase, beautiful antiques, paintings and sculptures. David Siguaw, Director of Sales and Marketing, describes the spacious outdoor pool deck as where Hollywood and Miami meet the Wild Wild West. Rebelle Was awarded by Texas Monthly in 2016 as one of the best new restaurants in Texas. The bars of the Haunt and St. Anthony Club serve live music and cocktails. We welcome guests with open hugs and strive to make their stay an all-around experience, says Siguaw. 02 of Nicole Franzen's 12 Fascinating history of the Emma Hotel actually includes three Emma, the wife of Pearl Brewery owner Otto Koehler and two other Emma he had an affair with. The rough history of the building is reflected in the current design of the hotel. In addition to impeccable service and the human component that makes Hotel Emma a special, essential component of the hotel's brand is the aesthetics of industrial chic in South Texas, says Beth Smith, Director of Sales and Marketing. From the moment you walk in, the historic brewery is about life. Located on the quiet northern part of the river walk, the hotel appeals to those looking for a more personal, less commercial atmosphere. 03 of the 12 Courtesy of Mokara Hotel and Spa, located on a busy stretch of river walk, Mokara offers the perfect combination of convenience and luxury. Regular customers point to small touches such as free warm cider and cheerful staff as reasons for their re-business. We are blessed to have incredible loyalty We do from our customers, says Rusty Wallace, District Managing Director of Mokara. Our commitment to excellence is what our customers can count on, and it is demonstrated throughout our restaurant, spa and guest services team. Our upscale but affordable character paired with the convenience of being located right on the River Walk allows customers to explore San Antonio with ease. Many people don't understand the vast history of River Walk. It was conceived in 1929. Downtown had serious flooding problems, and a 27-year-old UT architecture graduate named Robert H. Hugman suggested the city turn the San Antonio River into an asset, not a hindrance. Hugman's brainchild has since become the essence of the city. 04 of Nick Simonite's 12-room boutique hotel, Hotel Havana is located along a discreet part of the River Walk near the Tobin Performing Arts Center. The Mediterranean Renaissance-style hotel was opened in 1914, and current owner Liz Lambert completed an overhaul in 2010. The spirit of the original hotel survives in rustic pine floors, Cuban works of art and antique furniture. Palm trees and banana trees outside add to the tropical atmosphere. Ocho Restaurant offers a mix of Texan, Cuban and Mexican cuisine in a dramatic setting overlooking the River Walk through floor-to-ceiling windows. The patio on the second floor overlooks the river. The hotel is a dog sled and provides bikes for rent. After an evening on River Walk, Havana Bar's basement is the perfect place to wind up and plan your next adventure. The staff have a knack for predicting the needs of guests and helping to ensure that all stays go smoothly. With three on-site bars and an upscale River's Edge cafe, the hotel is a great place for nightlife. When the weather is good, the restaurant's outdoor patio is one of the best places on the River Walk to watch the boats glide past. We are surrounded by team members who have a genuine passion for hospitality and truly care, says Brian Getman, Director of Sales and Marketing. It shows how they fit every day, interact with guests and provide an unforgettable experience. 06 of the 12 Courtesy Hyatt Hill Country built on 300 acres of historic Rogers-Wiseman family ranch, Hyatt Regency Hill Country Resort and Spa seamlessly combines comfort and elegance. The legendary history of the Rogers-Wiseman family and ranch hospitality culture is embedded in every aspect of the resort and the experience of our guests, says Dan King, General Manager. Rich traditions, true Texas hospitality, and home away from home feeling we create something that forces our guests to come back from per year. The 500-room resort provides everything you could need for a full family holiday. For children there are several pools, a lazy river for tubing and a 22-foot water ride. Adults will enjoy a 27-hole golf course and windflower spa. 07 of the 12 Courtesy Valencia Hotel Riverwalk Renovation of the $10 million hotel was completed in April 2017. The top-to-bottom conversion will include both Spanish and Mediterranean elements, including rich iron and colorful tiles. An ambitious renovation effort to suit the hotel's purpose of giving guests a sense of space. This includes amenities such as luxuriously comfortable mattresses, as well as subtle details such as the signature scent of Valencia's candle in the lobby and the tranquil view of the River Walk. It's not something our guests can get into the property around the corner. The unforgettable experience of staying at the Valencia Riverwalk is an unforgettable experience that our guests look forward to repeating, says Trent Freeman, General Manager. Valencia is just a few blocks from Market Square. A vibrant cultural and business centre since the 1820s, Market Square is the scene of festivals and outdoor events all year round. Market Square at its best in April, during the citywide Fiesta celebration. During the rest of the year, visitors will find excellent Mexican restaurants, traditional Mexican crafts and an indoor shopping mall where you are sure to find the perfect souvenir to celebrate your trip. The area is also home to several galleries that feature works by Latin American artists. The area is located to the west of the city centre and a short walk from most hotels in the city centre. 08 out of 12 If you are in the market for a combination of value and luxury, consider the average price of the Drury Plaza Hotel. The beds are exceptionally comfortable, the breakfast bar is extensive and some rooms are equipped with a Jacuzzi. The kids will enjoy the large pool which is actually on the roof of the garage. The upper floors have a great view. Continue to 9 from 12 below. 09 of the 12 Located near Luckland Air Force Base, Best Western Plus is popular with servicemen and their families. The rooms are constantly clean and well maintained. The free hot breakfast starts early to meet the needs of those warriors who are at dawn. 10 of 12 Located in the heart of the action on riverwalk, Westin has extra-large rooms and suites. The hotel even has special beds for the family dog. Woodhouse Day Spa offers massages, manicures and facial treatments to help you relax. The heated outdoor pool offers spectacular views of the Tower of the Americas. Built for the 1968 World's Fair, the 750-foot Tower of the Americas is now a multifaceted tourist attraction, with an upscale bar, two restaurants, an observation deck and a cinema. The top of the tower rotates slowly for changing species. 11 of the 12 Comfort Suites are a budget option and are just a short drive from the river walk.
